Report of the Council.

The Report which the President and Council now have the honour of presenting to the members is the fifty-ninth Annual Report of the Institute.

Members.—It is with much pleasure that the Council records a greatly increased membership of the Institute. The roll at the beginning of the year was 462. Thirty-one names have been removed, 13 by death, and 18 by resignation or for non-payment of subscriptions; 137 new members have been elected, of whom 29 are life members, making the present roll 568. Furthermore, 40 of our members this year became life members, thus increasing our life membership to 88. The Council desires to record that this highly satisfactory increase in our general and life membership is largely the result of the personal activity of the President, to whom the Institute's cordial thanks are due.

Obituary.—By the death of Mr. David Goldie, the Institute has lost a member who, notwithstanding his many public duties, took a keen interest in the progress of the Museum. Mr. Goldie will long be remembered by his gift to the city of Auckland of the beautiful kauri forest which now bears his name, while the Institute has cause to be grateful to him for his generous bequest of £1,000 for the general purposes of the Institute and Museum.

Another prominent citizen and member of the Institute whose death we have the sad duty of recording was Sir Henry Brett, whose interest in general culture, particularly in music and horticulture, were well known. Sir Henry was a consistent supporter of the Museum, and many specimens in our collection have been secured through his generous help.

The Council also records with regret the death of Mr. Wm. Townson, of Thames, a field naturalist and ethnologist, to whom many workers have been indebted for valuable co-operation and help; of Sir Arthur Myers, the Hon. J. P. Campbell, Dr. L. K. Hagen, and Messrs. C. M. Carter, J. B. de Mole, D. T. McIntosh, A. R. Morrison, W. H. Pountney, and A. C. Saxton.

AIM Ann Report

Council.—At a Special General Meeting held in May, the Rules of the Institute were amended to provide that the Vice-Presidents of the Institute should be the three past Presidents prior to the President of the year.

At the last Annual General Meeting a letter was received from the retiring President, Sir James Gunson, asking the Institute to accept the sum of £118 6s. 10d., the balance of the Citizens' Presentation Fund, for the purpose of acquiring additional specimens of Maori arts and crafts for the Museum. A resolution was carried expressing the Institute's cordial thanks to Sir James for his gift and its high appreciation of his ten years' notable service as President.

Finance.—Excluding the credit balance from the previous year, and £735 life members' subscriptions which belong properly to the invested funds, the receipts for the year were £2,090 3s. 10d. Expenditure has been heavy, amounting to £2,213 14s. 8d., of which £189 9s. 9d. is library expenditure, £100 16s. 0d. for specimens, £152 19s. 3d. for meetings and general Institute expenses, and £318 18s. 0d. for museum and office expenses.

In addition to the life members' subscriptions mentioned above, the capital fund has received £39 3s. 11d. from sale of endowment lands.

As in previous years, the activities of the Institute and Museum have been greatly hampered by lack of funds, expenses having advanced out of all proportion to increased revenue. We need still more members, and earnestly appeal to everyone in the Auckland Province to assist by gift or otherwise in improving our collections.

Meetings.—The meetings arranged for the delivery of public lectures were, by kind permission of the Council of the Auckland University College, held in the College Hall, and the use of this handsome and commodious room added materially to the pleasure and comfort of both lecturers and members. The Institute is indebted to the University College Council, not only for this kind permission, but also for special provision courteously arranged for the use of a lantern and cinema projector for the purposes of our meetings. The following public lectures were given, and were very well attended by members and the public:—

“Chinese Character and Art.”—Dr. E. S. Dukes.

“The Natural Resources of Arnheim Land.”—Mr. D. D. M. Campbell.

“The Romance of Wireless.”—Mr. G. McB. Salt.

“City Milk Supply.”—Professor W. Riddet.

“Forestry at the Marriage of Science and Industry.”—Professor H. H. Corbin.

“Digestion.”—Mr. Carrick Robertson.

“Laboratory Work and its Results in the Hospital and Public Health Services.”—Mr. F. L. Armitage.

The last two lectures were illustrated by cinematograph films.

Papers were read at the ordinary meetings by Miss Joyce M. Wilson and Messrs. J. A. Bartrum (2), W. R. Wilson, G. Archey (2), N. H. Taylor, A. W. B. Powell, W. R. McGregor, W. F. Short, Dr. C. E. R. Bucknill, and by Professor Worley and Mr. J. C. Andrews.

Research grants made through the New Zealand Institute have been taken up by members of the Institute as follows:—

Mosquito Research Committee (Professor Thomas, Chairman; Mr. Armitage, Hon. Secretary).

Waitemata Harbour Survey (Mr. Falla, Hon. Secretary).

Mollusca of Auckland, Mr. Powell.

N.Z. Chilopoda, Mr. G. Archey.

Constituents of Essential Oils of New Zealand Plants, Mr. Short.

Essential Oils of New Zealand Plants, Professor Worley.

The Institute, together with the New Zealand Institute, approached the Government during the year with a request for support to enable an invitation to be sent to the Pan-Pacific Science Congress to meet in New Zealand in 1928 or 1929, but the Council regrets to report that the Cabinet would not agree to provide the necessary financial assistance.

An invitation has been issued by the Council to the New Zealand Institute for the holding of the next New Zealand Institute Science Congress in Auckland in January, 1929.

Anthropology and Maori Race Section.—Since its formation in 1922, with eighteen members, the section has steadily increased its membership year by year, the roll now standing at 44. The Officers for the year were:—Chairman, Mr. G.

AIM Ann Report

1926 to 1927

Archey; Committee, Dr. Buck, Messrs. Falla, A. Geddes, Geo. Graham, T. Simson, and H. E. Vaile. Hon. Secretary, Mr. V. F. Fisher; Hon. Auditor, Mr. Ivo B. Esam.

The lectures arranged by the section were well attended by members and the general public, and we have reason to believe that general interest in anthropology has thereby been stimulated.

Lectures and papers were given by Messrs. G. Archey, Geo. Graham, H. D. Skinner, W. Page Rowe, V. F. Fisher, L. T. Griffin, and R. W. Firth.

Agricultural Science Section.—This newly-formed section has had a very satisfactory session, six meetings having been held, at which seven addresses were heard and discussed, among them being a particularly illuminating lecture by Professor Stapledon, of Aberystwith University, a leading authority on grassland.

Papers were read by the Chairman (Professor W. Riddet), Professor H. Corbin, and Messrs. F. L. Armitage, W. T. Collins, E. W. Hughes, and W. S. Hill, and arrangements have been made for a visit to the Northern "Gum-Land."

Astronomical Section.—This section held six meetings during the session, four for popular lectures and two for technical papers and discussions. Papers and lectures were given by Professor Segar, Mr. E. G. Jones (2), Professor Burbidge, and Mr. A. C. Clifford.

The observatory, which is temporarily situated in the Old Grammar School grounds, has been used by a number of members; but its situation does not permit of accurate work, and the Committee has in hand measures for its removal to a better site.

Library.—During the year £189 9s. 9d. has been paid on account of the Library, of which £133 1s. 5d. was incurred in the previous year. The expenditure incurred this year is £58 15s. 1d. for periodicals, £20 16s. 4d. for binding, and £105 3s. 6d. for books—£184 14s. 11d. in all.

By paying subscriptions direct to the British and American Chemical Societies, sufficient has been saved to enable us to order The Industrial Chemist, Monatshefte für Chemie, and Archiv der Pharmazie.

A most valuable addition has been made to the Library by the deposit on loan by the Diocesan Trust Board of a complete set of Gould's works, including the Monographs on the Birds of Australia and the Mammals of Australia.

Museum.—Attendances at the Museum for the year are estimated at 78,000. A considerable amount of cataloguing has been done by the staff, and in addition, the large meeting-house from Thames, the Dr. Leys Collection, the Hon. J. B. Turner Collection, the Geology Collection, and many other specimens from the Museum store-room have been removed to the store-room of the new building, which has been made available by Messrs. Hansford & Mills, the building contractors. The Council desires to record its appreciation of the generous help of Messrs. A. B. Wright & Co., who transported the whole of these collections free of charge.

The public continues to make considerable use of the Museum as an inquiry bureau, over 500 questions having been answered personally or by letter during the year; and in this connection the Curator desires to acknowledge the assistance courteously given by Mr. Bartrum, Lecturer in Geology, and Mr. Lancaster, Lecturer in Botany, of the University College, and by Mr. A. E. Brookes and Mr. A. W. B. Powell in the identification of specimens.

In order to stimulate interest in the collections, a set of 12 post-cards, illustrating noted specimens of Maori craft in the Museum, has been prepared and offered for sale to the public.

Additions to the Collections.—The public interest in the Museum is indicated by the increased number of accessions during the year, the number in the register being 277, an increase of 70 over last year.

Among the donors of gifts, special mention must be made of those who are continually adding interesting and valuable specimens to our collections. The eighteen separate gifts made by the President include most interesting and valuable Maori specimens, some of which are illustrated in this Report. The splendid greenstone pendant known as a marakihau is considered to be unique, and is undoubtedly an ancient specimen while two greenstone pekapeka, a flat notched greenstone pendant, a carved stone bowl or lamp, a korowai cloak, kiwi feather cloak, and an old greenstone mere are very choice additions. To Mr. George Graham we are again indebted for many specimens, including Fijian pottery, dancing clubs, spears, shields, and a fish trap, and, in conjunction with Mr. R. W. Firth, a fine specimen of an old Welsh coracle. Mr. Hallyburton Johnstone has given, among other articles, a large handsome silver cup, presented by Her Majesty Queen Victoria to the Royal St. George Yacht Club in 1878, while Mr. A. T. Pycroft, the Rev. Angus Macdonald, and Mr. Hugh Wright have each added several interesting articles to their previous gifts.

Carved Funnel, presented by Mr. Geo. F. Webster.

presented by Mr. H. E. Vaile.

A most valuable acquisition was the gift made by Mr. Geo. Webster of an elaborately carved old feeding funnel, a handsome waka huia, and a large greenstone tiki discovered in a cave in 1840 by the late Mr. John Webster, and of two greenstone adzes found some time later. The feeding funnel is certainly one of the finest known, and the other articles are of high merit.

To the Oriental collection has been added a series of articles illustrating the earliest stages in Chinese ceramic art. While the specimens were selected chiefly on account of their ethnological importance, as demonstrating the changes in materials and process of manufacture, the illustrations included in the Report show that they by no means lack artistic merit.

A small first consignment of these was purchased with our own funds, but a second much larger series was very generously paid for by a member who desires to remain anonymous.

Both the ethnological and the war trophy collections have been enriched by the presentation by Mrs. Mackesy of the collections made in New Zealand, Egypt, and Palestine by the late Colonel C. E. R. Mackesy, C.M.G., D.S.O. Another welcome addition is the collection of mollusca and microscope slides made by the late Mr. Thomas Ball, and presented to the Museum by Mrs. E. M. Ball.

The Council also desires to direct attention to the following additions, to the donors of which, as well as to all those whose names appear in the Appendix, it tenders cordial thanks for their interest and support.

Dr. Haeusler: Palaeolithic implements, type foraminifera and mollusca.

Mr. R. W. Gossett: Two collections of Melanesian ethnology.

Mr. E. G. Austin: A large collection of splendid Australian stone weapons and implements.

Messrs. Clutha and Kenneth Mackenzie: Maori cloaks and carvings, deposited on behalf of the Hon. Sir T. Mackenzie, K.C.M.G.

Mr. D. S. Wyllie: Many natural history and ethnological specimens collected on his recent expedition to North-Western Australia.

Mr. P. Alfred Grace: Large carved Pah post from Tokaanu.

The Hon. Vernon Reed: Collection of Maori adzes and carvings.

Mr. R. S. McCall: A Moa skeleton (Cela geranoides) from Coromandel.

Mr. J. Butler: A collection of ethnological specimens from Vanikoro.

Mr. H. Mahoney: A series of interesting Maori articles discovered by himself in the vicinity of Auckland and finally, from Mr. H. R. Butcher, of Kaiapoi, his extensive collection of silver and bronze coins of all British reigns from the time of William I.

The Marist Brothers Trust Board, owners of the well-known collection of Maori articles made by the late Mr. H. P. Kavanagh, have offered to deposit the collection in the Museum for a term of years, and this offer has been gladly accepted. Mr. Kavanagh's collection of greenstone will be a notable addition to our display of tikis, adzes, and ornaments.

New Museum Building.—Good progress continues to be made with the erection of the War Memorial Museum building, and it is expected that it will be completed by the end of the year. Classifying and repacking the stored material are being proceeded with in readiness for the transfer from the present museum. Tenders for the supply and erection of exhibition cases for the new building have been called in England and in Auckland, and it is hoped that by the time the tenders close the financing of the new building will have been assured and that the Council will be in a position to let a contract for this work.

The Council, however, feels some uneasiness about the completion of the new building, as the funds possessed by the Citizens' Committee are still £25,000 short. If the purchase money for the Princes Street property should have to be drawn upon for the building, there will not be sufficient to furnish and equip it, which would seriously affect the opening of the new Museum. The old Museum must, however, be vacated and handed over to the purchasers. The Council feels in duty bound to let the members know the position, because the Institute's funds may be involved. It will be seen, therefore, that the successful opening of the Auckland War Memorial Museum depends upon the result of the efforts of the Citizens' Committee to secure the £25,000 outstanding, which efforts the Council earnestly hopes may meet with success.

Conclusion.—Although our attention is naturally centred upon the transfer to the new building and the improvement, as far as possible, of our collections, considerable activity has been maintained in other directions, as will have been seen by the report of the meetings held, lectures given, the research in progress and library additions, and it is confidently hoped that, by the further support and interest of our members and of the public, substantial progress may continue to be made in every department of the Institute and Museum.
